Message from Administration

Parents,

LCCA's Night at the Oaks community event is this Friday, December 5! I hope you are able to come by between 4 PM and 7 PM for an evening of exploring student produced products for sale and enjoying the Christmas season with friends. The event is free, and all are welcome.

Please pay special attention to the testing schedule for the end of the 1st semester. It is very important that students attend test days for EOCs and Final Exams.
